

MyCitizenship.EU - Celebrate EU Citizenship

Consultants involved with the community

The website will offer advice as well as encouragement from key international consultants with wide experience in EU law and citizens rights:

Stuart Brown (UK)

Freelance consultant in environment, sustainable development and trade, policy implementation planning

His working experience covers 38 countries to date, from Chile to Vietnam. For much of his working life Stuart has helped countries wishing to join or otherwise to be associated with the European Union to adapt the policies and institutions to the requirements. He has a reputation as a brilliant policy analyst with a good eye for what is or is not realistically implementable.

Holger Hembach (Germany)

Attorney-at-Law specialising in human rights law and justice reform

Holger is an internationally experienced attorney with a strong background in human rights law and justice reform, specialising in particular in the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), business and human rights and data protection. He has worked as an advisor to the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), the United Nations and other international institutions.

Ester Olivas Cáceres (Spain)

Lawyer specialising in EU policies, international trade, intellectual property and geographical indications.

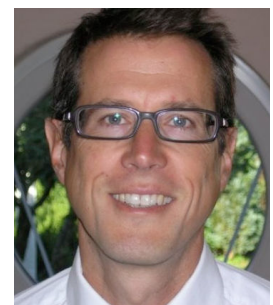

Ester is a lawyer based in Valencia. She specialises in particular in Geographical Indications (GIs) from technical, legal and political points of view and is strongly committed to fostering the development of GIs worldwide. She has in-depth knowledge of EU policies and institutions.

Ester is a frequent speaker at seminars and conferences.

Robert Seelig (Germany)

Attorney-at-law specialising in banking and capital market law

Robert owns a Heidelberg-based law firm specialising in environmental, banking and consumer law. He has a record of more than 1,500 legal proceedings in court, representing consumers based on German and EU legislation (including ECJ decisions) during the past 19 years. He's one of the very few German lawyers entitled to describe himself as "Fachanwalt für Bank- und Kapitalmarktrecht" (Attorney-at-law specialising in banking and capital market law). He has extensive knowledge of EU environmental law.

Przemysław Musiałkowski (Poland)

Freelance consultant in human rights, rule of law, international criminal law and cooperation, justice reform and related issues

Przemek is possibly one of the sharpest minds in Europe! (Not his own claim, we hasten to say.) Expert in human rights, rule of law, international criminal law and cooperation, justice and penitentiary reform, fighting economic crime, corruption, money laundering and terrorist financing, evaluation and monitoring, project formulation and management, needs assessments. He describes himself as a proud EU citizen.

Isabelle Mihoubi-Astor (France)

International lawyer specialising in migration, asylum, refugee protection, citizenship, gender equality and human rights advocacy

Isabelle is an international lawyer with experience in over thirty countries and more than twenty years' experience in multilateral diplomacy, conflict prevention and peace-making. Her main areas of expertise are migration, asylum and refugee protection, citizenship and tackling statelessness, gender mainstreaming and gender equality, and human rights.

Richard J Fairhead (Cyprus)

Media Consultant, TV and Film Director, Large Scale Events Director, Writer

His working experience covers 36 countries to date, from USA to Australia, but with a good proportion being in the Middle East, North Africa and Europe. Richard is passionate about his EU citizenship has applied for Cyprus citizenship. Having lived in North America he realised that Europe, and predominately southern Europe is his home. Cyprus fits with his personality.

Richard is webmaster for the mycitizenship.eu project.

MyCitizenship.EU is a grassroots community of EU citizens concerned about their rights.

###

If you would like more information about this topic, please email
pressinfo@mycitizenship.eu